

I am opposed to the lifting of restrictions on media ownership. The media is the mainstay of ensuring our democracy. Please take into consideration that varied sources for information are required for us to be able to make fully informed decisions on matters of importance to us all. Thank you for your attention.